

Winter Holiday Show 2010

Saturday, December 18 at 11:30am

Chicago Park District-Chase Park Theatre

4701 N Ashland, Chicago

Join Ballet Academy in Lincoln Park to celebrate the Holiday Season with our 3rd annual Winter Holiday Show.

About the Show:

- This is NOT a recital. This is a small dance show which would be held in a form of an open class. The Dancers will be performing a small version of the Nutcracker Suite that they will learn in class. Costumes for the performance will be given right before the show, and must be returned to BALP right after the performance.
- There will be a small table with holiday goodies. Parents are encouraged to bring Holiday treats to share with everybody at the show. BALP will provide juice boxes, plates, and napkins.
- There is no assigned seating and therefore no tickets will be sold. Everything will be very casual.
- Also, there is no backstage, so all the dancers will stay with the parents during the show, and will be called before it is their time to dance.
- There will be no professional recording of the show, so parents are encouraged to bring their own photo cameras and video cameras.

More details about the show will be e-mailed later on to those wishing to participate.

*Those that are not participating must attend the early class time during that day.

Fee: $40

The total fee will include: administrative fees, costumes renovations and alternations fees, labor fees, and supplies fees.

Those wishing to participate in the 2010 Winter Holiday Show must return the lower portion of this form along with the payment (check or cash) to BALP before Sunday, November 28th
